

I'm writing to comment on the planned airing of "Stolen Honor: Wounds That Never Heal" by Sinclair Broadcasting. Airing of this anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation, is direct electioneering, and, if I understand it correctly, is against federal election law.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I can't see how this clearly partisan action serves the public interest.

Thank you.
